Our Values

- Respect,
- Integrity,
- Service and
- Equity

02

Our Purpose & Thematic Focus Areas

EOF exists to uplift lives and shape futures through interventions in 4 key areas:

Youth Empowerment

Women Empowerment

Education

Health

ICT as an Enabler

The Problem We Address

Millions of Kenyans continue to face interconnected challenges:

- Limited access to quality and affordable education
- Inadequate healthcare infrastructure
- High youth unemployment and economic exclusion
- Untapped talent in sports and creative industries
- Inconsistent access to clean water and sanitation
- Escalating environmental degradation

04

Why This Matters Now

45.6%

Percentage of Kenyans that live below the poverty line (UNDP, 2023)

Climate shocks

Climate shocks displace thousands annually

35%

Percentage which youth unemployment exceeds

Inequality & idleness

Reasons that drive insecurity, radicalization, and despair

Sports and education

Remain underleveraged as tools for transformation

Our Patron

Eliud Owalo FIHRM FESK EGH:

Senior public servant, economist, philanthropist

With a distinguished track record in Public Service, Private Sector consultancy and a passionate philanthropist, Mr Eliud Owalo is a key figure in Kenya's national transformation journey.

A highly accomplished and widely respected Economist and Strategy Expert, he currently serves as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Delivery and Government Efficiency in the Government of the Republic of Kenya.

In this role, he leads national efforts to enhance service delivery, institutional performance, and operational efficiency across government.

Prior to this, Mr. Owalo served as Deputy Chief of Staff for Performance and Delivery Management, and as Cabinet Secretary for Information, Communication, and the Digital Economy, where he spearheaded transformative initiatives in digital governance and public sector reform.

Mr. Owalo is also the Founder of the Eliud Owalo Foundation, established out of the belief that all human beings are equal in the eyes of the Creator and deserve a fair opportunity to live empowered, dignified, and fulfilling lives. The Foundation operates through several thematic pillars, with a strong focus on sports and youth empowerment as key drivers of social transformation.

Before his entry into public service, Mr. Owalo was the Founder and Managing Consultant of Eliud & Associates (E&A) Management Consultants, an international consultancy firm he led for over two decades.

During his 23-year consultancy career, he successfully delivered more than 100 strategic plans for institutions across Kenya, designed bespoke performance management systems, led major organizational transformation programs, and advised both public and private sector entities on strategic planning, corporate governance, and human resource management.

His core competencies span Macro and Microeconomics, Strategic Planning, Performance Management, Organizational Development, Job Evaluation and Pay Structure Design, Change Management, Market Research, and Feasibility Studies.

Mr. Owalo holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Business Studies from Kenyatta University, a Master of Business Administration in Human Resource Management from the University of Nairobi, and is currently pursuing his Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Strategic Management at the University of Nairobi.

He is a Fellow of the Institute of Human Resource Management (FIHRM), Fellow of the Economists Society of Kenya (FESK), Member of the Institute of Economic Affairs (IEA), Full Member of the Kenya Institute of Management (KIM), Member of the Professional Trainers' Association of Kenya (PTAK), and a former Director and Council Member of the Kenya School of Government (KSG).
